Report of the board

The board met six times during the year. Each meeting had a quorum.

The auditors were reappointed for a second term of five years at the last annual general meeting of the members.